

THE BOSTON MORNING POST.

MONDAY, JUNE 8, 1835.

FOR PRESIDENT,
MARTIN VAN BUREN.
FOR VICE PRESIDENT,
RICHARD M. JOHNSON.

The Insurgents of Port Praya.—The Norfolk Beacon, of the 3d inst., states that the United States District Attorney arrived in that place on the 31st ult., and after consultation with the Mayor of the Borough, the latter issued a warrant for the apprehension of the Portuguese officers and soldiers who arrived there on the preceding Wednesday in the Brazilian schr Boa Nova, from Port Praya, via St Thomas. The Mayor issued his warrant on the oath of Bernardo Reggio, who certifies that the said officers and crew committed an act of piracy on his vessel, lying in a small bay on the coast of the Island of Bravo, one of the Cape Verde, at a time specified therein—and about fifty of the crew were accordingly committed to jail, preparatory to the holding a court of examination.

The officers of the detachment getting wind of the design to apprehend them, departed in the steamboat South Carolina, on the following morning, at 5 o'clock, for Charleston, S. C. In the afternoon the prisoners were examined before the Mayor, in the presence of the District Attorney, and the Portuguese Vice Consul, and duly committed.

London dates to April 27, two days later, have been received at New York, via St Andrews. There is no news except the following additions to, and alterations of, the new ministry:—Sir J. Hobhouse is appointed to the India Board. Earl Minto, Postmaster General.—The Lords of the Admiralty are Lord Dalmeny, Admirals Adam, and Sir W. Parker, and Hon. Capt. Elliot, R. N. Secretary of the Admiralty, Mr Labouchere.

The Legislature of Connecticut adjourned on Friday, having taken the first step towards amending the Constitution of the State so as to limit the tenure of office, by the Judges of the Supreme Court, to the period of five years—passed laws for dividing the State into districts for the election of members of Congress, and to suppress the issuing and passing of small bills, which reaches one dollar and two dollar bills, and goes into operation with regard to the former next fall, and the latter, in March next—and amending the militia laws of the State in several important particulars.

The great Sale of Maine Land will take place on Wednesday next at Bangor—Massachusetts has several townships in the market. The Portland Courier says—

We understand that the plan of this land sale is to be rather a novel one. The quantity of timber on the several tracts is to be estimated, and they are to be set up at a minimum price, not so much per acre, but so much per thousand for the timber. This is the report we have heard, whether it is entirely correct or not we will not presume to say.

We understand the Bangoreans, anticipating that their hotels will not be sufficient to accommodate the crowds of visitors that will pour into the place next week, will have in readiness some capacious and comfortable sheds where those who cannot be better accommodated than in the common ways, for some charitable purpose, which proved very successful. Among other ingenious representations was Miss Elizabeth Poole, (says the Sun,) in the identical dress which she wore in 1639, when in treaty with the Sachem of Tiquet for the purchase of Taunton. The good Lady was represented with a peck of white beans standing beside her, (the price of the purchase) while the wily Sachem, in the costume of his nation, seems endeavoring to drive a better bargain with the thrifty old dame.

The Speech which the Courier's Correspondent has made for Mr Webster, before the N. Hampshire Legislature, is perfectly annihilating—tremendous. Mr W. had better come home and shoot his friends, if he wishes to be President, instead of wasting his powder upon the little birds in Sandwich.

Death of Commodore Henley.—The N. Y. Gazette of Saturday says—

We learn from Capt Ashby, of the schooner Eagle, from Havana, that Commodore John D. Henley, of the U. S. sloop of war Vandalia, died at that place on the 23d ult. The V., with his remains on board, sailed for Pensacola the next day.

The wife of Bernardo de Soto, (one of the pirates confined here under sentence of death,) arrived in New York a few days since, and proceeded on to Washington, to plead in behalf of her husband.—Briggs' Bul

A Western Warrior, in attempting to scalp an Indian with his own knife, found it so dull that it evidently gave unusual pain to the dying savage—upon noticing this, the warrior coolly remarked to his victim, "Why didn't you keep sharper knife—it would n't have hurt you half so bad, if you had."

The Centinel has a chapter upon old clothes, in which the expediency of selling them for what they will bring is very strongly urged. The Whig editors have turned their coats so often, they are pretty good judges of these articles.

Pond, Kelly, Budd, and others, charged with participating in the destruction of the Convent, have been acquitted. The only remaining case is that of Mr Thurston, which it is understood will be withdrawn.

The Journeymen Printers in Washington have had a battle royal—those employed in the Telegraph office, versus those in all the other offices—the Police has interfered and bound the parties to keep the peace.

A new Society has been formed at Taunton, called the "Taunton Union for the relief and improvement of the colored race." President, Hon. J. M. Williams.

A pretty Duett, by Zeuner, "There is not a leaf within the bower," has been published by Ditson and is for sale by Parker.

They say that the new Steamboat Lexington, which runs between Providence and New York, is the fastest boat in the world.

Jail Delivery.—Two prisoners made their escape from the jail in Newark, N. J., a short time since, by the aid of some villains without.

The Fusiliers, Capt. J. W. Champney, start on their Southern excursion, this afternoon, accompanied by the Boston Brass Band.

MUNICIPAL COURT.

Ezekiel F. Lancaster, of Lancaster, Worcester county, after lying in jail about three months, was put on trial, on Saturday forenoon, upon an indictment, for obtaining, by false pretences, from Isaac Miles, a certain "valuable note," viz—for the sum of $281, on the 21st of March last. In the month of September, 1834, Mr David H. Kane, of this city, advertised the materials of his printing office for sale, in consequence of which Lancaster appeared as a purchaser, and bought them for the sum of $1400, which was secured to Mr Kane, by a mortgage on the printing apparatus, duly executed and recorded on the 26th of September, 1834. Mr Lancaster continued to carry on the business in Mr Kane's office, for whom he executed some printing, it being a part of the bargain that he should pay for the materials in work. On the 21st of March last, without the privity of Mr Kane, he sold a portion of the types, cases, and a press, to Isaac Miles, describing them to be his own property, and "unencumbered," and took Miles' note for $281, and another mortgage on the articles for his security. He next applied to Hiliard, Gray & Co., and effected a purchase of a bill of books, at six months' credit, for the firm of Ladd & Shaler, of Lancaster, who, he pretended, had authorized him to purchase for them. Besides his own note, he gave the note of $281, and the mortgage, he obtained from Miles, as collateral security. He immediately conveyed the books to a broker's, and pledged them for cash; and, in the mean time, Miles ascertained that Mr Kane had a mortgage, duly recorded, on the types, &c.; and that the printing press he had bought with them belonged to Mr Bartholomew, who had obtained Mr Kane's permission to let it stand in his office. Lancaster had sometime previously proposed to purchase the press from Mr Bartholomew.

After all the preceding facts were clearly proved, it turned out that Miles was a minor, and therefore, his note of hand was not a "valuable thing," in contemplation of law, which cannot compel the maker of it to pay it. The court so instructing the jury, Lancaster was acquitted, but is to be held in custody till the end of the term, to give Hiliard, Gray, & Co., an opportunity of commencing a prosecution against him, as they sold him the books upon the collateral security of Miles' note and mortgage, and if the government can make it appear that Lancaster knew Miles to be a minor, the very circumstance that caused his acquittal on the first indictment, will insure his conviction on the second.—As the case now stands, Hiliard, Gray & Co., are the only sufferers.

Calling at the wrong door.—On the night of the 7th of May last, Thomas Brown, a colored man, called, in company with a white girl, at the house of a colored family on the Hill, and applied for lodging.—He was indignantly repulsed by the mistress of the house, and also followed out into the entry by a couple of young sailors, one named John Davis, at the house on business, who demanded of Brooks an explanation for making such an insulting proposal to the woman.—Brooks, being alone, and apprehending an attack from the two, drew his knife and stabbed Davis in the breast. When the case came on for trial, it was discovered that one of Brooks' friends had hired Davis and the other had hired Brooks, and that Davis was a free man, and at first proposed to settle for $10, but finally demanded $50, and probably obtained it, for "making himself scarce." His indifference about the affair, and Brooks' previous good character, and plea of nolle contendere, operated much in his favor, and he was only fined $30, and costs, with a saving clause consigning him to the house of correction, if he fails to pay the fine in ten days.

Swift Work.—On Saturday night, May 30, John Saunders, a young man, 20 years of age, entered the dry goods store of Mrs M'Intosh, in Hanover street, and had a package, to the value of about $12, put up, but while Mrs M. was making out the bill, he seized the package and ran off, but being immediately pursued, was overtaken in the market, lodged in jail, examined on the following Monday in the Police Court, sent up to the Municipal Court for trial, pleaded guilty, and, on Saturday, was sent to the State Prison for four years.

Philomena Theol, for stealing upwards of a $100 from the chest of the mate of the schooner Atlantic, while lecturing the cabin boy against "pumping water on a Sunday," was sent to the State Prison for two years.

John Brewer, caught in the act of stealing the clothes of a clerk in a counting room, on Arch wharf—Two years in the State Prison.

Tremont Theatre.—Mr and Mrs W. H. Smith, it will be seen by the bills of the day, are up for a benefit to-night. They are deserving, and it cannot be denied that they merit a real one. Mr Smith, besides being an active and efficient addition to the corps dramatic, is and has been an active and honorable member of the Fire Department, and at the times "which try men's souls," is always "on hand." And what can we say for Mrs S.—it surely would be derogatory to truth to say any thing against her, and equally contrary to etiquette and gallantry to say anything in her favor—universally correct, never out of place, and with the prettiest smile imaginable, she wins her way into the favor of old and young. The "Bill of fair" is excellent, and with the strong aid of Miss Cushman, we see no reason why the house should not be well filled.—We hope his brother Firemen will one and all not only turn out, but turn in, and award to him as an actor and a man, the support he richly deserves. W.

Revolution in Peru.—Lima, March 5, 1835.—We regret to inform you that we are again in a state of revolution. On the 24th ult. Gen. Salaverry who commanded the garrison at Callao, instigated the troops to declare against the Government at Lima, and on the following day took possession of the city, declaring himself Supreme Chief of the Republic.—The acting President, with about 200 troops under command of Gen. Nicolson, retired a few hours before, towards Pasco. The measures adopted by Salaverry, are very arbitrary.—Large sums have been raised by forced loans—and delinquents are imprisoned until their quotas are paid. Many of the citizens are secreted, and many fled from the city.—Jour. Com.

Crackee!—The trunk of Gen. Mackeracker, containing $200,000 in money, &c., stolen from the stage of Baltimore, Md., was found rifled on the road, but the money untouched!

A Development.—Not many years since, the body of a female Indian not far from seventeen or eighteen years of age, was found floating in the Mohawk, between Whitestown and Rome, and which upon examination by a Coroner's jury, was found to have been extensively mangled, and portions of the interior formation of her face and numerous muscles and bones removed; but whether before or after death could not, at the time of the inquest, be ascertained. Subsequently, however, the circumstances of the girl's death, and previous life, were accidentally discovered by one of the gentlemen in that country, and have been communicated to us at considerable length. It appears that the girl belonged to one of the Indian families settled at Brothertown, and was considered uncommonly handsome; that she was seduced by a young student of medicine in a neighboring city, and becoming eniente, the student, to avoid exposure, hired an abandoned wretch to waylay and strangle her, and then caused her remains to be removed to a deserted hovel in the woods, where they were used for anatomical purposes, and afterwards carried in a wagon to the Mohawk, and thrown in. The amiable principal in this transaction has since obtained his "sheep skin," and removed to Ohio.—N. Y. Sun.

Tammany Hall.—Nothing in the whole tactics of the opposition press has been more grossly disingenuous than the attempt to connect the Sunday meetings at Tammany Hall with the Democratic party, and throw odium on that party as maintaining principles of an irreligious nature. Tammany Hall is an edifice belonging, we believe, to a joint-stock association, and is leased to an individual, to be kept by him as a public hotel.—The only reservation in the lease, that we are aware of, is for the purpose of securing to the Democratic General Committee the use of certain apartments in the building on particular political occasions. Beyond this, the lessee possesses full control over the premises, and hires his rooms to whom and on what terms he pleases. If, then, he lets the great room to a society of persons, professing infidel opinions on religious subjects, for the purpose of holding Sunday meetings, it is entirely his own affair, and any attempts to excite the prejudices of the religious portion of the community against the Democratic party, on that account, is obviously most uncandid and unjust.—N. Y. Post.

Advertisement—Great Attraction.—On the 10th of July, or thereabouts, several splendid riots are intended to be given in New York. They will be got up on a scale of magnificence far superior to those of 1834. Several dwelling houses are already put down on the list of suspected buildings to come down. A few churches also are to be thrown in by way of variety. As there will be fine pickings for thieves and pickpockets, these respectable characters are requested to be early on the ground, dressed in genteel style, with whiskers and large knives. For further particulars apply at the office of the Courier and Enquirer.

Also, a special riot is to be got up for the purpose of putting down Tammany Hall people, who meet there every Sunday, and sing psalms of their own making, and do other wickedness. Early application will be necessary in order to procure the best places, and most conspicuous positions. Apply at the office of the Commercial Advertiser, or Journal of Commerce.—N. Y. Morning Herald.

Baltimore Convention.—We do not doubt that the result of this convention will be gratifying to the entire Democracy of the nation. The untiring support which Mr Van Buren has ever given to General Jackson, the merciless persecution which he has undergone for so doing, his great talents and integrity as a statesman, have already induced the people of the United States to elect him to the second office within their gift; and have now prevailed upon the Convention of the great Democratic party, to nominate him by a unanimous vote for the first. The gallant Johnson has, by his long and faithful services in Congress and in the field, entitled himself to the peculiar favor of the people, and particularly to those of the Western States.—Chillicothe.

A most painful accident occurred last Monday at the Military Academy at West Point. Two of the cadets were amusing themselves at fencing, when, in the heat of play, the foil of one was thrust into the eye of the other, and penetrating to the brain, inflicted a wound of which the unfortunate cadet (a son of Captain Carter, of Virginia) died in a few hours. The anguish of mind experienced by the survivor is, we understand, so intense, that the liveliest apprehensions are entertained that grief will wholly overthrow his reason. The two cadets were intimate friends, and were practising at their foils for mere sport, before a number of their companions. The classmates of the deceased entered into a subscription to erect a suitable monument to the memory of their ill-fated associate.—Eve. Post.

From Nassau.—We learn from Capt. Rowe, that the Governor of the Island of New-Providence, issued a Proclamation 19th May, forbidding vessels to sail under 48 hours from that date; the object of which was, that the balance of the money that was on board the Helen Mar, might be saved for those whom it might concern. $18,000 had been delivered up, and a large proportion of the $109,000 was supposed to be in the hands of the wreckers on the Island. The wrecking schooners Dart and Industry, fell in with and brought to Nassau on the 12th May. Mr Robert Norris, mate, and 2 seamen, from the wreck of the schooner Rebecca Frances, lost some time since, and before reported.—N. Y. Gaz.

Mexico and the United States.—We learn, says the Journal of Commerce, from an authentic source, that the additional article to the treaty of limits between the United States and the republic of Mexico, has been concluded and approved by the General Congress of Mexico, and in virtue thereof, the period within which the respective commissioners of both nations should meet and decide on the boundary between the two countries, has been extended to one year from the date of the exchange of the ratifications.

Washington, June 4, 1835.—Another "travelling accident" occurred on the Baltimore road last evening. One of the "Safety line" of coaches overtook a coach belonging to the Mail line near the half-way house between this city and Baltimore, when the Safety line drove against the Mail coach and tilted it over a precipice fifteen or twenty feet high, with horses, driver, and passengers. The coach was dashed in pieces, the horses much injured, and the driver and passengers seriously hurt. The "Safety" driver was arrested this morning, and held to bail, and his principals will no doubt be held to account by the sufferers.—J. Com.

Murder.—In Haddam, Ct. on Sunday afternoon week, a young woman, aged about 19, by the name of Ann Crook, daughter of Mr Jonathan Crook, died in consequence of a blow in the heart, given her by her sister-in-law, a foreign woman, the evening before. The woman who did the deed, left the place on Sunday evening, and was found in Durham on Monday morning, at the Stage House, intending, it is supposed, to have the Stage for New Haven. She was taken back to Haddam.—Mid. Sentinel.

Another Earthquake.—An arrival at Baltimore from Valparaiso, brings intelligence that the Island of Juan Fernandez has been destroyed by an earthquake. The town was situated in a valley, and on the first alarm, the inhabitants fled to the mountains. The sea at first receded from the Island, and then returned, overflowed the town, and in its return swept away the houses which had been previously prostrated, leaving on the site an immense mass of black mud.—Star.

Good Natured Editors.—Cobbett says—"I believe that if the devil were to die, London newspapers would express their regret at the event." To be sure they would. If they did not, some friend of the deceased would very soon salute them with an order to "stop the paper."—Balt. Rep.

Medical.—"I have something here very good I want to show you."

"This was said to us the other day by a respectable looking man with a box in his hand."

"I will be glad to see any thing very good."

"It is an infallible cure for corns."

"Well, my dear sir, but I never had corns."

"It will do for the gout."

"I never had the gout."

"It will do for rheumatism."

"I never had rheumatism, God bless you."

"The devil—you are too healthy;" and so he walked out.

Some few minutes another respectable gentleman walked in.

"I hope you are sick, my dear sir."

"Indeed, no; but to oblige a friend I might be sick a few hours—not longer."

"I have got a bottle here of Houston's red medicated syrup, excellent for dyspepsia."

"But I never had dyspepsia."

"It is good for diseases of the stomach and bowels."

"I never had any trouble with these parts unless it was to line them well."

"Well, it will do as a cordial for a person not sick."

"Take this bottle and taste it."

"I wish it was good old Madeira wine—that is a medicine I would like."

The gentleman walked away, and our readers will see an account of the article in the advertisement.—N. Y. Mor. Herald.

The "female sailor," whose romantic story our readers will all recollect, has safely arrived at her home, in "dear Erin," in female attire. She was offered on her way, £500 to exhibit herself at the theatre, at Liverpool, for six nights. Upwards of 3000 copies of her likeness have been sold. While travelling in the coach, she frequently forgot herself; and when the horses became restive, called to the driver to "mind the helm," to "steer right," to "haul that there chain," &c. Her family sailed from Europe for Quebec, in the Mayflower, about four years ago. She says she will never marry.

Cotton Factory Destroyed.—A few minutes before 5 on Wednesday afternoon, a cotton factory, near the Willow street railroad, and in the vicinity of Fair Mount (Pa.) was discovered to be on fire. The building was totally destroyed, together with the machinery and a valuable stock of goods.

Church Robbery.—Trinity Church, in Princeton, N. J., was last week entered and robbed of a quantity of carpeting, and the clergyman's surplice, and black silk gown, together with another black silk dress and scarf.

For the Boston Morning Post.

To Governor M Duffie and all Slave Owners.—The Boston Gazette, of June 5th, designates the Abolitionists as a body of men who claim all the religion, philanthropy, and moral virtue, that have been awarded by the Almighty to the human family. These men, says the Gazette, would desolate one half the Union, and bathe their hands in the blood of their victims, to effect their mad and ambitious purposes.

Now, gentlemen of the South, be ye Federalists or Democrats, permit me to ask you, if you find in this league against your property, your lives, and your constitutional rights, any thing like northern Democracy? Have not the old Federalists and the modern Whigs arrogated to themselves all the honorable titles above, by which the Abolitionists are now designated in the oldest Federal paper of this State? Yes; for one Democrat to be found in the ranks of the Abolitionists, you will find a hundred Whigs. The fashionable clergy of the North are nearly all Federalists.

A CONSTITUTIONALIST.

For the Boston Morning Post.

A New Census.—Do tell me, Mr Editor, why the inhabitants taken at this time? It is some years since it was done, and the popular branch of the Government have voted to have it done again. Two reasons are understood to be urged against a concurrence. These are replied to thus—the citizens are willing to bear the expense, and but little importance it is apprehended, attaches to the interference of the proceeding with any State Legislative measures.

We ask for a concurrence. WARD 12.

THE INDEPENDENT BOSTON FUSILIERS

will take up their line of march on a tour of camp duty to the City of Washington, THIS AFTERNOON, at 5 o'clock. Members will be at the Armory at 1 o'clock precisely, in full uniform (blue pants). Members will govern themselves strictly according to this order.
